City Workers Not Satisfied With Council's Pay Proposal

City employees notified City Council at a meeting Wednesday night that they are "very much dissatisfied" with the pay raises the legislators are offering.

The more than 30 employees who attended the meeting at City Hall were promised by Council that their request for more money and increased vacation benefits will receive further consideration.

Council President Michael Schuler (R.) explained, however, that Council has agreed only to do more research on the proposal and is making no promises that the present offer will be revised upward.

Council earlier this week offered a pay increase of $24 per month for most salaried personnel and 10 cents an hour for those working on a hourly basis. It is also offering a three-week vacation for employees with 15 years of service.

Asked For $50 a Month
Police and firemen earlier this month petitioned Council for a $50 a month across-the-board pay hike seven paid holidays a year and a three-week vacation for employees with at least 10 years of service.

Police and firemen now get a two-week annual vacation and are not paid for any holidays they do not work.

Excluded from the increased benefits now being offered are all elected officials, part-time employees, those holding jobs recently created and those who have had recent raises.

If the pay increase now being offered goes into effect, it would cost the city between $17,000 and $18,000 per year. A rough estimate made earlier by Fred Koenreich (D At-Large) had set the figure at $25,000.

Patrolman Norman Flick, one of the spokesmen for the police and firemen group, said last night his figures showed that the increase being offered by Council would cost the city approximately $14,000 annually.

The $18,000 figure was agreed upon after a closer check by both sides.

"The raise amounts to a little over five per cent," Flick said, "and we were promised that four years ago."

Koenreich said the proposed $24 hike is actually $7 more than the police and firemen were promised four years ago. "According to surveys we made, our police and fire departments are not under the average in pay; in fact, they are a little over," Koenreich commented.

Flick replied that Salem doesn't pay the fringe benefits that many other departments get.

Councilman Ralph Zimmerman (R. 4th Ward) pointed out that Fire Chief Clarence Wright and Safety Director R. J. McConner both are against granting the paid holidays and increased vacations under the preset circumstances.

Our chief has apparently sabotaged us again then" remarked Fireman Norman Smith, another spokesman for the group.

Chief Wright informed the safety

Accused Of Tunisian Favoritism

Dag's Peace Effort Gets French Snub

TUNIS (AP)—U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld left for New York today after a three-day on-the-spot study of the explosive Bizerte crisis. He did not hide his bitterness at a French snub.

Sources close to Hammarskjöld said he was particularly annoyed by the refusal of Vice Adm. Maurice Amman, French commander of the Bizerte base, to see him. Amman said he acted on orders from Paris. The French government earlier accused the secretary-general of showing favoritism toward Tunisia.

Hammarskjöld told newsmen he was concerned by what he described as French refusal to withdraw to the base after a cease fire.

"You know my reaction," he said. "I believe that now I have a complete picture of the situation."

"Are you optimistic?" a newsman asked.

"I am," Hammarskjöld replied. "In this world you have to be an optimist."

special plane for Rome where he is to take a commercial airliner for New York.

Pursuing his customary policy of uncommunicativeness to newsmen, the U.N. secretary-general said nothing about any recommendations he might be taking back to the Security Council. The council is expected to meet soon after his return for further discussion of the crisis between France and Tunisia.

Hammarskjöld was rebuffed in an attempt to see the French commander in Tunisia, and the French foreign office said it would be useless for him to visit Paris.

The French attitude marked a further deterioration in relations between France and the world organization, of which President Charles de Gaulle has grown increasingly contemptuous.

Hammarskjöld, who came here at the invitation of Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba, said he hoped "common sense and human wisdom" would prevent any further fighting around the French naval and air base at Bizerte.

De Gaulle's government, pointedly ignoring the U.N., said in a statement Wednesday night it wanted peace talks soon "between French and Tunisian authorities."

Hammarskjöld had written Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville complaining because France had not complied with his Security Council resolution calling for withdrawal of French troops that occupied Bizerte city.

Couve de Murville in reply noted Hammarskjöld's presence in Tunis at Bourguiba's invitation and said his letter "seems to me to expose the views of the Tunisian government." A government statement said the French forces would not quit Bizerte city "which lies astride the channel between the Mediterranean and the Atlantic."

Louisville Airman Killed In Auto Crash

MIDDLETOWN, Pa. (AP)—An Olmsted Air Force base airman and his young woman companion were killed today in a highway crash near the base, state police reported.

The victims were identified at the base as Airman I.C. Thomas H. Myers, 25, attached to the 28th 61st GEEIA Squadron, and Miss Violet Goodling, 18, of Middletown.

Myers reported to this base in December of 1959 from Korea. His next of kin was listed as his mother, Mrs. Erma L. Kyle of Louisville, Ohio.

U.S. Team Heads For Europe

Kennedy Program Picking Up Tempo

WASHINGTON (AP) — The diplomatic phase of President Kennedy's Berlin preparedness program picks up tempo today with the departure for Paris of a U.S. team headed by Assistant Secretary of State Foy D. Kohler.

In advance of Kohler's takeoff, Secretary of State Dean Rusk scheduled a midafternoon news conference at which reporters planned to ask about further steps in Kennedy's broad program of counter measures against the worldwide Communist threat.

Kohler and a half dozen aides will meet with diplomatic teams from Britain, West Germany and France to do advance work on the Western Big Four foreign ministers conference to be held in Paris August 5-8. Rusk leaves for the French capital next week.

At Paris, the Western foreign affairs chiefs will go over a broad range of the strategies aimed at keeping West Berlin out of Communist hands.

From Kennedy's standpoint, a major task was to get the North Atlantic Treaty allies to step up their defense efforts to the allies have responded favorably to Kennedy's ideas, but it remains to be seen what action they will take.

The President hoped that his increased U.S. defense levels by $3,454,600,000 and 217,000 men would serve as inspiring leadership to the 14 NATO partners.

And as an added lever in working up a stiffer NATO defense, he has left vague the exact amount of total contribution the United States is willing to put into the combined effort.

U.S. officials also were sympathetic toward helping Britain in the NATO stepup because of the financial predicament which has forced the English into an austerity program.

Kennedy made plain in his talk to the nation Tuesday night that he wants the NATO nations to hasten fulfillment of the long-unmet NATO military strength goal.

In the center of Europe, this means increasing the present strength of about 23 NATO divisions to the target of 30 divisions. Most of this buildup is due from West Germany.

Seven women have notified Civil Service Commission Chairman Roy Harris that they will take the examination for police meter maid Friday evening at 7:30 at City Hall Council Chambers.

Shaker Heights Value Set At $400 Million

CLEVELAND (AP) — Suburban Shaker Heights is the wealthiest community in the country, according to a research team from House & Garden Magazine.

The team, which recently spent more than a week in the suburb, said average income of its residents is $27,150.

Mayor Wilson G. Stapleton estimated Shaker's worth as more than $400 million, the researcher said.

Draft Pool Ample, County Board Reports

The Columbiana County Draft Board, with headquarters at Lisbon, has an ample supply of men for selective service quotas, even if they are trippled, according to the clerk, Elaine Griffith.

The board sent 18 men July and the tentative August call is for 13 men, with 34 others notified to take pre-induction physical examinations Aug. 2.

Mahoning County's August draft call is for 33 men.

Local Company Ownership to Change Aug. 1

Pump Firm Becomes Crane Division In $6 Million Deal

Stockholders of the Deming Company yesterday voted approval of the sale of the pump-manufacturing concern to the nationally-known Crane Company, a move that was previously approved by directors of both companies.

Crane's acquisition of the Deming Company for an estimated $6 million will become effective at the close of business next Monday.

The stockholders vote was well over 90 per cent of those present according to Walter Deming, president of the Deming Company, who will be general manager when the local firm becomes the Deming Division of the Crane Company on Aug. 1.

Top executives of the Crane Company, an Illinois corporation, whose general offices are in New York City, are Dante C. Fabiani, executive vice-president, and Thomas M. Evans, board chairman.

Company auditors are expected at the local plant next week but Mr. Deming said he did not anticipate any other Crane people in the immediate future. Deming employees have been completing inventories for the past several weeks.

Crane's acquisition of Demings, which also has a plant at Rogers, Ark., and Monterey, Mexico, was a cash deal, based on a valuation in excess of $17 per share for some 323,435 outstanding shares of Deming stock.

Deming stockholders also voted yesterday to change the name of the Deming Company to the Deming Investment Corporation to handle the net proceeds received from the sale of the assets.

Major Local Industry

Demings, which is one of Salem's major industries, employs nearly 600 persons, including production and office workers.

Mr. Deming, when he made the first announcement last month of the proposed sale, indicated that no changes in the local operations were anticipated.

He said that directors felt that the combination with Crane would

Boone Named to Poland School Post

Joseph Boone of 750 Park Ave., a teacher and instructor in the Salem public school system for the past 12 years, has been named principal of the Poland Junior High School near Youngstown, effective Aug. 1.

Boone, who came here from Canton in 1949, is a graduate of Slippery Rock, Pa., Teachers College and Kent State University, where he received his master's degree in education.

Boone, in addition to the teaching tenure here, served as manager of the Memorial Building in 1955-56 and has been supervisor of the Youth Center. Although most of his teaching has been at the Fourth Street elementary school building, he was assistant principal and dean of boys at the Junior High until a year ago when he was assigned to teach science.

He was athletic director at the Junior High for awhile and also coached basketball and football at the Fourth Street building. He and his wife, Helen, have a daughter, Myrna, and a son, Ray. During World War II, Mr. Boone was a bomber pilot with the 15th Air Force.

Castro Initiates One-Party Rule

New Faction Viewed As Communistic

HAVANA (AP) — Cuba today winds up a mammoth four-day celebration of the eighth anniversary of Fidel Castro's revolution highlighted by Castro's announcement that all Cuban organizations will be merged into a single "United Party of Cuba's Socialist Revolution."

(Castro's announcement had been predicted several weeks ago and observers in the United States said the single party, when it is formed, would be dominated by the Communists.)

The prime minister made his announcement during a 3½-hour speech before hundreds of thousands of Cubans who wildly cheered him and Soviet spaceman Yuri Gagarin.

The Soviet major, launching out into international politics for the first time since he orbited the earth, denounced the United States and pledged to Cuba "the armed help of the Soviet people."

Castro followed Gagarin to the platform as the crowd shouted "down the Caimanera"—the Cuban name for the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay in eastern Cuba.

The prime minister first attacked the U.S. press for predicting he would mark the 26th of July anniversary by announcing plans for a single political organization. A few minutes later, he told the crowd Cuba was headed toward one overall Socialist party embracing all organizations in the island country—military, political, labor and others.

Castro did not say when such a party would be proclaimed but

Car, Truck Crash Hospitalizes Boy

A 7-year-old Moscow, Pa., boy is in fair condition at Salem City Hospital with possible head injuries and abrasion suffered in a car-truck crash at 6:20 p.m. Wednesday at the intersection of Alternate Rt. 14 and Rt. 165 near Columbiana.

William Mentz was a passenger in a station wagon driven by his mother, Mrs. Carl A. Mentz, RD 1, Moscow, Pa., which was struck broadside by a tractor-trailer truck carrying a load of coal.

The State Highway Patrol said that the driver of the truck, Chester Bruce Green of Elyria, was attempting to pass at the intersection where Mrs. Mentz was making a left turn onto Rt. 165. The truck jackknifed and overturned, spilling its load of coal off to the side of the highway.

The truck driver was not injured. Mrs. Mentz suffered multiple abrasions on her left side but was not hospitalized.

Green was cited by the patrol for passing at an intersection.

Seeking 'Peak Readiness'

Senate To Act On Defense Measures

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fast Senate action is in prospect for legislation requested by President Kennedy to put the armed forces in "peak readiness to counter Communist threats to Berlin and other danger spots."

The Senate Armed Services Committee called Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to testify on a bill to permit the President to call up to 250,000 ready reservists to active duty for 12 months.

Also before the committee is a bill to authorize appropriation of $958,570,000 for aircraft, missiles, and naval vessels as part of the $3,454,000,000 additional funds requested for a buildup of U.S. military forces and for civilian defense.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., the committee chairman, told newsmen he knew of no opposition to either measure. He said he expected the committee to act on them later today and hoped the Senate would pass them Friday.

McNamara spent nearly four hours in a closed-door session with a Senate Appropriations subcommittee Wednesday, explaining the administration's plans for beefing up the nation's military might.

The program is geared primarily to increasing non-nuclear forces so that this country will have, as McNamara put it, "a great range of military alternatives for meeting Soviet moves."

Over-all, the defense appropriation bill now asked by the administration for the fiscal year that began July 1 tops $46 billion.

Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., chairman of the Appropriations subcommittee, said it plans to act on the bill Friday afternoon. The full committee is expected to act on it next Tuesday.

Robertson said the bill probably will be brought up in the Senate toward the end of next week.

The House already has passed the defense money bill, but it acted before Kennedy's request for additional funds was submitted to Congress Wednesday.

Russell was joined by Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., senior GOP member of the Armed Services Committee.

Boy, 4, Hurt Critically; Driver Held

A four-year-old East Palestine boy is in poor condition following a hit-skip accident Wednesday at 5 p.m. near his home.

Johnny Milnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Milnes of 503 E. Clark St., is in City Hospital with head injuries, a possible fractured left leg and multiple abrasions.

The boy was struck by a car driven by Richard O'Brien, 43, of 2926 South Ave., Youngstown. O'Brien was driving east on E. Martin St., and struck the boy as he stepped from the curb, after skidding 37 feet. The child's body was hurled approximately 24 feet. He was a block from his home en route to a nearby grocery store to buy candy.

After the accident, O'Brien fled east into Pennsylvania, but a partial description of the car and license plates by witnesses aided in his apprehension. Local police located him at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at his home.

He was returned to the East Palestine City jail. Police Chief Wallace Dilworth reports O'Brien is awaiting a hearing today on a charge, yet to be determined.

Could Block Contaminated Dust

Basements In Certain Homes Provide Radiation Protection

EDITORS NOTE—In addition to shelters, what protective devices are being planned by civil defense officials for the average citizen? Sterling F. Green examines the survivor considerations in this last of four articles.

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Civil defense authorities, concerned about the slow acceptance to the home shelter idea and misconceptions about such factors as evacuation, are working on protective devices for the average citizen.

Too many Americans still conceive of shelter as a costly blast-proof structure with three-foot walls.

Such shelters still are recommended, but the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization says that in a great many cases an ordinary basement would do if it were provided with a wind-baffle entrance to block contaminated dust.

Current civil defense thinking accepts the idea that millions would be in the wrong place if catastrophe came. These would be killed.

The big idea now is to save those who, having escaped the blasts, are still vulnerable to radioactive fallout. The aim is to provide the survivors with shelter from the particles that are sucked up in nuclear explosions, carried on high, strong winds, and deposited on cities and countryside perhaps hundreds of miles away.

There also are misconceptions about evacuation, officials acknowledge. Most city dwellers believe with good reason that an 11th hour mass exodus in private cars would end quickly in a hopeless jam.

Actually, evacuation is not conceived of as a final, panicky flight while missiles streak toward their targets. It is now viewed chiefly as an advance precaution, taken in particularly vulnerable areas if deteriorating international conditions make it seem advisable.

Until last week's White House order giving the Pentagon major responsibility for civil defense, there was behind-scenes conflict here over whether the military establishment should take over the warning, communications and research and development programs as well as the management of the shelter drive.

The Governors Conference and the United States Conference of Mayors—evidently believing that civilians would come off second best if military establishment men were making the decisions—issued strong statements favoring continued civilian control under the OCDM.

But with these issues settled and policy control still in civilian hands, all the disputants apparently have agreed that an all-out drive is worth the effort, under any management. They are hoping it is not already too late.

Selection Days Schedules For 4-H Youths Set

Selection Days will be held in three districts for all county 4-H club members, according to Carl E. Harsh, associate county agent in 4-H work.

West District will be held at the United Local School on Monday; South District at Highland town School, Tuesday, Aug. 1, and the Northeast District at Joshua Dixon School in Columbiana Friday, Aug. 4.

Registration will be 10 a.m. until noon for both junior and senior members. Judging will be held in the afternoon with open house at 7:30 p.m. and announcements of winners and a style show is set for 8:30 p.m. in all the districts, Harsh said.

County Selection Day for winners of the three districts will be held Tuesday, Aug. 8, at Lincoln School in Lisbon, with registration from 11 a.m. to noon, followed by same schedule as district selection days.

Prizes for some of the winners in County Selection Day will be a trip to the state fair with their projects, Harsh said.

Draft Boards Deluged With Calls

Beefing Up Of Armed Forces Causes A-1 Draftee Inquiries

By The Associated Press
Hundreds of thousands of small cards today were taken from desk drawers and the hidden recesses of wallets where they had lain unnoticed for months—even years.

President Kennedy Wednesday asked for more personnel in the armed forces, and overnight the most closely scrutinized card in the nation became the "notice of classification" issued by the Selective Service System.

Telephone calls in some instances two score more than the normal number, began to flood the switchboards of draft boards in every state, county, city and hamlet.

The American male wanted to know just where he stood in the President's plans to beef up the armed forces.

Thousands of others, apparently resigned to their A-1 classification, sought out the armed forces recruiting centers. They wanted to know what was being offered to the enlistee.

Civil Defense headquarters across the country were deluged with calls from citizens wanting to know what precautions they could take to avert the devastation of an enemy air attack.

Even the newest state, Hawaii, reported queries on Selective Service status had tripled in 24 hours. Officials there described the volume of telephone calls and personal visits to the offices as "just tremendous."

Though the armed forces recruiting centers did a land-office business—in some cases judged equal to activities during the Korean War—many reported "plenty of questions but few enlistments."

Probably one of the most common reasons for the calls to draft boards was requests to correct existing records of individuals.

Many called to remind Selective Service officials that they had become fathers one or more times since their latest visit to the draft board.

Others wanted the board officials to know that their mother or father, or an aged aunt or uncle had in recent months become a dependent.

Col. Frank J. Graf, deputy director of the Pennsylvania Selective Service System, said, "generally over the state people came in correcting records."

"Many men suddenly realized they had better bring their records up to date," he said. "Many queries were from married men with children, wanting to know if they will be called."

See Cutback In Domestic Aims

'New Frontier' Programs Put In Jeopardy By Military Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy apparently has put in jeopardy part of his New Frontier program by his call for additional defense spending.

Spurred by the popular support Kennedy aroused in taking his case to the nation Tuesday night, Congress is in the process of giving him the $3,454,000,000 he asked—plus a year's authority to boost military manpower—as speedily as its ponderous machinery can operate.

But the enthusiasm with which members of both parties are backing the chief executive in the buildup of arms strength in connection with the Berlin crisis is matched by the misgivings with which many view the fiscal future.

Republicans have taken the lead in demanding domestic economies aimed at pruning what they say otherwise may be a deficit in excess of $5 billion for the fiscal year ending next June 30. Conservative Democrats are talking in the same terms.

The Republican Congressional Committee said in a statement Wednesday night that "the President can't have it both ways" and "must shelve unnecessary civilian spending for the duration of the international emergency."

"We cannot afford the fat of social experimentation at this time if we are to develop the sinews of survival," the statement said.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., called on Kennedy to turn his attention immediately to "curtailment of all non-defense expenditures . . . which may be desirable but not absolutely necessary."

Kennedy has established a fairly good batting average in combatting the traditional Republican-Southern Democratic coalition and getting Congress' approval of legislation dealing with distressed areas, housing, minimum wage, Social Security and unemployment compensation.

But the increased military outlays have injected a new element in this contest—the prospect of a whopping budget deficit or increased taxes in 1962, when all House seats and one-third of those in the Senate are up for grabs in the election. Kennedy has left the tax question open but said he wants a strictly balanced budget next year.

One Guess As Good As Another

It is possible that not even Premier Khrushchev, chief architect of the mischief that plagues us, does not know what his next move will be. It is important to remember that for him mischief is an end in itself.

His only fixed aim is to bedevil non-Communist nations, principally the United States. Today it's Berlin. Yesterday it was Laos. The day before it was the Congo. Tomorrow it may be Brazil. Or he may think it's time to put Cuba back in the headlines.

No one knows Khrushchev's mind, maybe not even Khrushchev. One guess is as good as another about what comes next. But there is an urgency about making all the guesses, lest something unforeseen upset what little composure we can salvage out of so much uncertainty. And there is one guess especially that should be made.

THE KREMLIN may make certain that the United States and its North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies are kept in such a high state of tension they will think it is necessary to go into large-scale mobilization. This would be no trick for the Kremlin, because all it needs to do is make cryptic threats. No one knows what goes on inside Russia. It is still a riddle inside a puzzle inside an enigma. But the Western Allies and especially the United States react positively to every rumor and report, which is what they are doing now.

They Never Grow Tired

Once more the newspaper industry is alert to the danger of a proposal to throttle advertising.

This time it's a section in the House-approved appropriations bill for the Defense Department. The section prohibits defense contractors from using government funds for advertising.

Its purpose was to prohibit advertising that had been stirring up inter-service rivalries. This advertising had appeared primarily in technical publications.

But its effect, unless the language of the section is clarified, could be to prohibit all advertising by defense contractors. This would include advertising for materials, bids, labor and to dispose of surplus stocks.

When this was called to the attention of the Defense Department, a change in language was proposed before the Senate approved the bill. The change would make it clear to administrators of the appropriations act that "no part of the funds appropriated herein shall be available for paying the costs of advertising, except to recruit personnel, obtain scarce items or dispose of scrap or surplus materials." The Senate version presumably will contain this provision.

Why must newspapers be everlastingly alert to laws, intentional and accidental, that would block advertising revenue? Are they seeing things under the bed?

They do see imaginary dangers sometimes. But experience has shown them through countless clashes with public officials that their freedom depends on being financially independent that politicians and government jobholders know this and some resent it.

Authority over taxation keeps public officials in power. Advertising revenue keeps their newspaper critics in power. When officials resent criticism, they try to nibble at advertising, to weaken the source of the criticism. They don't dare to work in the open because of the First Amendment, but they never grow tired of burrowing underground. They must be watched.

Years from now people would wonder how it all came about away back in the year 1961 that people thought Berlin was going to be Armageddon, when in fact it was just one more demonstration of Khrushchev's theory that the world can be gained without conquest.

There never would be the direct provocation that would bring a showdown. Premier Khrushchev would go through the motions of making peace with East Germany that would not be a cause of war. East Germany then will take over military control of access routes to Berlin.

It would never make the bold move that would start the guided missiles whistling to their destinations. It would be that most awful and most frustrating of fates for the United States, Great Britain and France — being nibbled to death by ducks.

THEY WOULD BE as helpless to act as a horse with a gnat in its ear. Instead of the heroic, third-act showdown, with full showmanship that they are thinking about, they would be reduced to talking snail-talk with a janitor on a dark stage with the curtain drawn.

The climax that would have justified all the apprehension, mobilization, restudying of arms and mass tension over eventualities too dreadful to mention would never be reached.

Years from now people would wonder how it all came about away back in the year 1961 that people thought Berlin was going to be Armageddon, when in fact it was just one more demonstration of Khrushchev's theory that the world can be gained without conquest.

These men are almost unknown to the newer generations of what is left of our non-Communist civilization — yet if they should take power in France, Soviet forces would automatically move behind Western lines and we, the people of the U.S., would soon be standing alone.

That is why President Kennedy when he was here wanted to know, in effect, what was happening behind the stone walls of the Comite Central and whether the French party had a chance to seize power after De Gaulle.

NO ONE really knows. True, the French have their way of showing their contempt for the Parti Communiste.

Its address, for example, now is 44 Place Kossuth. Five years ago this same square was called Place Chateaudun. Then the Soviet tanks splattered children and their folks against the buildings and streets of Budapest. This so angered the Parisian City Council, it changed the name of Place Chateaudun to Place Kossuth in honor of the great Hungarian patriot.

In Paris the street signs are little blue plaques with white lettering hung on the corner of buildings.

Thus, the name of the old Hungarian liberator Kossuth — the symbol of Hungarian freedom — can be seen in two places on the Communist headquarters. Furthermore all Communist mail has the Place Kossuth return address.

Thus always there is an enforced reminder of the ancient freedom crushed now in Hungary. It is the French touch — the mocking of a Communist party which approved the slaughter not too many hours distance by plane on this small continent.

But not enough Frenchmen do mock the Communists. Today, the Comite Central still gets four million votes for its candidates — out of a total of 30 million cast.

TODAY THE PARTY still controls the powerful General Confederation of Labor (CGT) which has almost a million dues payers. This, in a country where unionists rarely sign up or pay their dues for a full year. The CGT, which takes its orders from the Comite Central, controls unions in the big auto, metal working, electronics, locomotive and transport industries.

True, against De Gaulle, it has been impotent. But against any other French political leader it could call out its labor cadres and paralyze France with a political strike.

There is no doubt that the Comite Central would coordinate such action with the movement of its pari-military undercover organization. No one really knows how strong this is or where its arms are cached. But few over at the Ministry of the Interior doubt that this cadre exists.

The estimate has it that a network of 4,000 trusted militarily trained men make up the officer corps of this underground operation. These men reportedly have a network of 50,000 Communist cells taking directives.

NO ONE can give you a detailed reading on the party ap-

The Real Russia

come as a bulk shipment of Barry Goldwater's book. The big front glass door was locked. Wedged behind it was an iron grill work. Behind this was a hulking guard.

I wanted to talk to either Jacques Duclos or Maurice Thorez, strong men of the most powerful Khrushchev political organization outside the Soviet world.

These men are almost unknown to the newer generations of what is left of our non-Communist civilization — yet if they should take power in France, Soviet forces would automatically move behind Western lines and we, the people of the U.S., would soon be standing alone.

That is why President Kennedy when he was here wanted to know, in effect, what was happening behind the stone walls of the Comite Central and whether the French party had a chance to seize power after De Gaulle.

NO ONE can give you a detailed reading on the party ap-parat. But insiders judge its size by the money it spends.

There are millions of francs available to the party — passed on directly and regularly by the Soviet Union through deposits made in a big commercial bank operating in the heart of Paris as a respectable front.

There just is no pretense about taking this Moscow gold. If, between money shipments, the party should need some ready cash, it can draw on its various businesses, such as Polish hams, furs, and the bullying and threatening of businessmen. Nothing is too low for the proletarian Duclos and Thorez party.

Thus it has funds for a powerful, subsidized press, the daily L-Humanite.

So much money has it that when the students wrecked its presses, after it approved the slaughter of Hungarian rebels, the party was able to buy the latest printing equipment for millions of dollars to replace the old machinery.

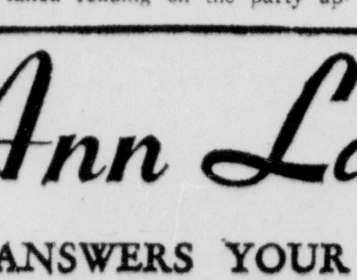

It provoked some of the violence against itself by ordering its people to pour concentrated acid down on the anti-Communist demonstrators back there in '56.

THUS, THE PARTY always is ready for direct action. But today it is not the only underground military force. There is a strong right of center underground. This is the OAS — the Organisation Armee Secret. (The Secret Army Organization.)

It, too, is ready to move and counteract terror with terror, violence with violence, street action with street action — if the Comite Central tries to take power someday. But there can always be Soviet reinforcement.

Khrushchev will not move slowly if De Gaulle goes. Without France and its vast secret NATO military complexes, in safe hands, our allies will topple like bowling pins in a full strike.

That's why the grim building on the Place Kossuth intrigued me so much.

Social Climbers

Dear Ann: A certain couple in our crowd is notorious for social climbing. They never accept an invitation until the last second, which to me means only one thing — they are holding off to see if something better turns up.

This couple has a habit of leaving parties early to go to other parties. They think it's smart to say, "We can only stay a minute because we have two other stops to make."

I think this is an insult to the hostess. They imply that their presence is so desirable that they must favor the largest number with their fleeting presence.

The Common Market

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Attempts To Form A Free-Trade Community

The newspapers throughout Europe are discussing continuously nowadays the prospects of a "common market" for all countries. Important conferences of the top officials of governments are being held to determine whether all or some of the Western countries will bind themselves together in a kind of free-trade community. Britain will meet soon with six associates, known as "The Seven," to decide whether to join another association known as "The Six."

David Lawrence

In the first group, which is called the European Free Trade Area, are Britain, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Austria, Switzerland and Portugal.

In the second group, known as the European Economic Community or Common Market, are France, West Germany, Italy, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

It is doubtful, however, whether the average man in Europe or in the United States has yet come to realize what all this maneuvering on tariffs can mean to him in the long run.

Proponents say it spells prosperity. Opponents fear that it offers to the country that emerges as the strongest economic power a chance to dominate Europe, and that aspirations for political leadership are behind the drive for an economic union.

As an ideal which aims to reduce tariff barriers everywhere, the principle of a "common market" has been received with noticeable enthusiasm in several countries of Europe.

But when it comes to practical application, the whole discussion as to which additional countries shall join or abstain, and, what is to happen after a new member joins, seems reminiscent of the tariff headaches which the Congress of the United States has experienced for decades.

The problem essentially is the same except that different countries—each of which is sovereign—are discussing how the "common market" concept will be applied. It is like the pressure for tariff protection that comes from individual industries or from certain sections of the United States when tariffs or import quotas are

So They Say

The responsible party is always the phantom of the Pentagon — the little man who wasn't there. —Rep. F. Edward Hebert (D-La.) chairman, House Armed Services subcommittee, inquiring into wasteful defense spending.

Many Americans are so bemused by the creature comforts that they seem to have forgotten the spirit of personal sacrifice that made this nation great. . . . A higher hand made the decision to withdraw from the (British) Commonwealth. God has ordained it. —Prime Minister Verwoerd of South Africa.

Thoughts

But he said to them, I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also; for I was sent for this purpose. —Luke 4:43.

The missionaries are right. The world needs more than policy. It needs healing and practical instruction and an appreciation of other people which is the essence of applied Christianity. —Brooks Hays.

Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man mature in Christ. —Colossians 1:28.

Man is the crowning of history and the realization of poetry, the free and living bond which unites all nature to that God who created it for Himself. —F. Godet.

discussed. The British, who have tended to play a lone game, indicate that they intend to join the "common market" of the continental countries but a final decision in London cannot be made without paying substantial attention to the wishes of commonwealth countries like Australia, New Zealand, and Canada, with all of whom Britain now has preferential arrangements in trade.

It is not an answer to the British dilemma to say that these preferences in duties would have to be brushed aside. Such action would cause severe repercussions in commonwealth countries.

Britain, for example, now takes one-third of Australia's exports and 90 per cent of New Zealand's dairy products.

THE LONDON CABINET will have to give assurances that some sort of "reservations" will be made so that the commonwealth countries affected by the "common market" proposal will have ample opportunity to adjust themselves to the new formula, or perhaps in some extreme cases will be covered by a special agreement.

It is not easy to reorganize trade arrangements that have lasted for many decades and have imbedded themselves in the price structure of a nation or in its capacity to export in competition with other countries.

This writer had a long talk the other day in Paris with Jean Monnet, the father of the "common market" idea, and he is hopeful that Great Britain will find within a few months a solution to her commonwealth dilemma and come into the European Common Market.

When asked how businesses in the United States—and, indeed, in certain European countries where the workers have a higher wage level than is to be found in other countries—are going to compete, the answer usually given by proponents of the "common market" is that the whole scheme will tend to raise wages in Europe where they are low and gradually to bring about real competition on the price front.

IT IS INTERESTING to note that French officials who are sold on the "common market" principle have persuaded many of their industrialists that the reduction or abolition of tariffs and quotas will tend to increase volume because new markets will be opened up that were previously closed by tariff walls.

The entire emphasis seems to be on increased volume of sales at perhaps lower prices.

In talking with one of the highest officials in the French government who is in a position to know President de Gaulle's views, the writer asked just how France expects to benefit from the European Common Market.

The answer was that there must be financial discipline and that, while the pressure for social gains should be recognized, the trend must be kept within bounds. This implies a certain form of wage-and-price control.

Already some trade unions in Britain are voicing skepticism about the whole thing. Ted Hill, chairman of the Trade-Union Congress, which has eight million members, has expressed opposition, along with 18 other British Trade-Union leaders.

They do not believe that Britain should enter the European Common Market without submitting the issue to a general election.

THESE TRADE-UNION leaders declared in a statement that to enter the "common market" would "be disastrous for many British industries" and "carefully won wage standards might easily be undermined."

Agricultural workers, too, are concerned. Unless priority is given, for instance, to the marketing of French farm products at prices commensurate with the higher costs of farm machinery, disaster could strike the French farmers and lead eventually to a withdrawal altogether from the "common market" agreement. A solution being proposed is to apply a series of tariff cuts gradually over the years.

There are, therefore, certain practical difficulties in the "common market" problem which, while by no means insurmountable, will challenge the ingenuity of the economic statesmen who are striving for a utopian era in the tariff world.

Exemplary Living

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Once upon a time there was a man who set out to be popular and well-liked. His name was Mortimer Witherspoon Thrope.

He went to the public library and read a book on how to become popular and successful.

"The way to be popular is to be normal," the book said. "Just act as a normal, balanced civilized individual should act and you're bound to be well-liked."

So Thrope faithfully followed the book's advice. He decided to become the most normal individual in his community.

Mortimer married a girl who was neither homely nor pretty—just average.

They had three children, all of whom got medium grades in school.

Mortimer bought a standard-sized house with a standard-sized mortgage in a standard neighborhood.

He drove a medium-sized car—neither too dull nor too flashy—and traded it in on a new one every three years.

He joined the Elks, the PTA, and the American Legion. He was good to serve on committees but always declined to run for office in any of these organizations. "Oh, there must be someone else better qualified," he said, modestly.

He subscribed to a book club, but carefully avoided reading any of the selections—unless they hit the best seller list.

Mortimer always—or almost always—got up to give his seat to an old lady on the bus, particularly if anyone from his neighborhood was on the bus, too.

He always arrived on the job punctually at 9 a.m., and left promptly at 5:30. "I get paid for doing a full day's work—and I like to give it to them," he said.

When the boss told a joke in a conference, Mortimer was the second employee to start chuckling and the next to the last to quit laughing.

At cocktail parties Mortimer got high but never loaded, and never bragged about himself. "Tell me about yourself—you must have had an interesting life," he urged those he met.

After 15 years of exemplary living, Mortimer suddenly awoke to the fact that instead of being widely popular, he was being avoided, even by old acquaintances. They seemed uneasy in his presence.

So Mortimer hired a public relations man to find out why. This individual made a secret survey of Mortimer's neighborhood and office and came back with his report.

"They think you're too good to be true, Mr. Thrope. They don't trust you. They think you must be hiding something."

Moral: If you want to be popular, be different. Everyone suspects anyone who acts too normal.

The Social Notebook

THE STEWART FAMILY annual reunion will be Aug. 12 in pavilion 4 at Firestone Park in Columbiana. Plans are being made for the largest turnout in the history of this particular branch of the Stewart clan.

It will be the 150th anniversary of the arrival in Salem Township of Matthew (Matthias) Stewart and his wife and children. The group plans to erect a marker in his memory Aug. 13.

George T. Edson, editor and publisher of the Stewart family magazine for nearly 40 years, will be the main speaker at the reunion. Mr. Edson is coming from the national headquarters of the Stewart Society of America at Olathe, Kans. He has spent most of his life in searching and gathering Stewart family records in all parts of America as well as the British Isles.

The program will also feature the Youngstown Kiltie Band, and Shames, the Oriental magician.

Officers in charge of arrangements are: President, William E. Stewart of New Kensington, Pa.; vice president, Homer Stewart of Columbiana; and secretary-treasurer, Miss Clara Stewart of RD 3, Salem.

THE SALEM Historical Society held its annual coveredish dinner Monday evening at Centennial Park with 40 in attendance.

Special recognition was given to two former Society presidents, Roy Harris and Harold Harman.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Geisy of Flint, Mich. Mrs. Geisy is the former Betty Jean Auld.

Mr. Harman was in charge of the program and presented Miss Estelle Mayerhoffer who gave an interesting sketch of Charles Burchfield, a noted artist and a member of the group. He was reared in Salem and was a resident here for many years.

Mrs. Mabel Campbell was in charge of dinner arrangements. The next meeting is Aug. 24.

TWENTY-FIVE members and 17 guests of the Friendship Class of the First United Presbyterian Church enjoyed a picnic Tuesday evening at Centennial Park.

Mrs. Harry Sherwood was in charge of the devotions and presented a meditation on Corinthians.

The program featured Misses Dana Goad and Lisa Petrach, who told of their experiences at Buckeye Girls State, which is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

The committee for the meeting consisted of Mrs. Sherwood, chairman, Mrs. William Brooks, Mrs. John Crawford, Mrs. Ernest Ashley, Mrs. William King and Miss Lucy Arner.

The next meeting will be Sept. 26 at the church.

A FAMILY picnic was enjoyed when the Towerview Homemakers Club met Saturday at Woodland Lake in Homeworth, with 32 in attendance.

Swimming and games were the diversions, with Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Geseman winning the egg throwing contest and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vogelhuber and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stiffler placing first and second, respectively, in the sack race.

Mrs. Lester Wilson received a birthday gift from her secret pal.

The next meeting will be Aug. 17 at the Vogelhuber home at RD 2, Salem.

MRS. FRED CAPEL of 1052, N. Ellsworth Ave., will entertain at an open house Sunday from 2 to 6 p.m. in honor of her cousin, Glenn J. Sheen of Menlo Park, Calif., formerly of Salem, who is visiting in her home.

Friends and relatives are invited.

MEMBERS OF the board of the Home for Aged Women will meet Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Lease of 314 Highland Ave.

THE 10TH ANNUAL reunion of the Morris Association was held in the Legion Hall in Hanoverton Sunday, with 57 in attendance.

Officers elected are: President, Jack Beveridge of Bellaire; vice president, Mrs. Paul Clapsaddle of Kensington; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. James Patterson of Minerva; historian, Mrs. James DeBray of Hanoverton and Arthur Morris of Alliance.

Family tree committee, Mrs. Patterson; food committee, Mrs. Frank McArtor of East Rochester; prizes, Miss Terry Hagan of Canton; table committee, Mr. and Mrs. Clapsaddle. The group voted to hold the reunion at the same place and time in 1962.

The afternoon was spent in visiting, games and singing, with Miss Vicki McArtor at the piano. A prize was won by Mrs. John Mease. Recognition was given to the eldest lady present, Mrs. Lyle Beveridge of Bellaire; eldest man, James DeBray Sr. of Hanoverton; traveling the farthest distance, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beveridge of Bellaire; largest family, Van Mills of Hanoverton, and the youngest, Debbie Patton of Minerva.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. John Schmid and son of Lexington, Ky., will spend the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schmid of Summit St.

A. P. Morris of 1329 Ridgewood Drive will represent the local Automobile Club when the board of trustees of the Ohio State Automobile Association holds its 1961-62 organization meeting Monday at Cedar Point.

Mrs. Sturgis Cheney and Mrs. John Cheney of Richmond, are visiting their relatives, Mrs. Eupha Langford and Mr. and Mrs. George Fellows of Guilford Lake.

Venice has some 150 canals and more than 400 bridges.

SALEM BAND DIRECTOR CITED — Drum Major Tom Williams of the American Legion Quaker City band of Salem's Charles H. Carey Post 56 was, in a way, a two-time winner at the recent convention in Cincinnati. He is pictured as he received the Ohio Department band championship banner from Cmdr. Alec J. Blair at the conclusion of the field contests Saturday night. Some 18 hours later, following the big parade, he learned that the judges had pronounced him the best drum major in line. He will receive a personal trophy for this distinction.

Lisbon Social

Mrs. Paul T. Gerrard was elected to succeed Mrs. Victor Williams as president of the Women's Association of First Presbyterian Church when the group held a dessert meeting Tuesday evening.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Gregg Ramsey, first vice president; Mrs. Donald Tanner, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Forrest Lowry, 3rd vice president; Mrs. Whitney Ingraham, secretary; and Mrs. John Rodu, treasurer.

The six circle chairmen will be Mrs. Dean Boyd, Miss Ruth Bye, Mrs. Robert Gardner, Mrs. Dan Libby, Mrs. Dean Rose and Mrs. Kenneth Williams. Miss Clara McGee was named to the nominating committee.

The Martha Circle was the hostess for this meeting which honored new members of the association. Miss Charlotte Childs, Miss Judy Ramsey and Mrs. Jeannie Wandle Smith were introduced.

Mrs. Victor Williams gave highlights of her recent trip to Purdue University for the National Conference of Presbyterian Women. Miss Karen Riggle, accompanied by Mrs. Dallas Hepburn, sang "Will You Remember?"

Mrs. Raney McCullough explained the purpose of the summer medical offering.

SEVENTEEN WERE present when the Cheerful Workers Group met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Homer McPherson of E. Lincoln Way. Mrs. Clifford Aiken was the co-hostess.

A coveredish dinner was enjoyed at noon. Mrs. Homer Ferguson presided for the afternoon program. Mrs. Harold Martsolf spoke on her work at the Retarded Children's School in Elkton.

The club is making plans for a luncheon and tour for the Sept. 19 meeting.

Eagles Auxiliary met Tuesday, with Mrs. Grace Reisinger, president, in charge.

A report was received from the memorial foundation on the financial standing for the year.

Two visitors were present from Salem, Mrs. Arthur Stark and Mrs. Sadie Doyle.

Lunch was served by the July committee after which games of 500 and social bingo were played.

Mrs. Bessie Smith and Mrs. Beverly North received prizes at cards and Mrs. Lorene Furrer and Mrs. Beulah Beiling at bingo.

Mrs. Mary K. Dailey and Mrs. Reisinger will serve as the August social committee.

The next meeting Aug. 8 will be preceded by an officers meeting at 7:30.

TWENTY-FIVE MEMBERS and guests were present for the meeting of the Silver Circle of First Christian Church Tuesday evening at the church. Mrs. Fred Nicholson is president.

An enjoyable program was presented with solos, "Silver Threads Among the Gold" and "Beautiful Dreamer" by Mrs. Robert Peterson and "Ivory Palaces" by Mrs. Leland Adams.

They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. J. Welsh.

Readings were given by Mrs. Dallas Clapsaddle and Mrs. Velva Allmon.

Chuckie Carter played a piano solo, "Variations of Jesus Lover of My Soul."

Mrs. William Rose, accompanied by Mrs. Allmon, sang two numbers and group singing was enjoyed while the committee composed of Mrs. Allmon, Mrs. Clyde Armstrong and Mrs. Bertha Lodge prepared lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Yost of

N. Market St. have returned home after spending a day with their daughter, Miss Ariel Yost in Cleveland.

Deming Club Holds Home CD Program

"Home Preparedness of Civil Defense" was the theme of a special meeting of the Demings Girls Club when they met at their office Monday evening. Approximately 25 were in attendance including other interested employees of the company.

The principal speaker was H. E. Zepernick, who was staff assistant to the area director in Alliance, which was headquarters for this area. He had held this position until just recently but due to a reduction in funds by the State Legislature, he had been relieved of his duties when the area headquarters were closed as of July 1.

His topic covered "a possible fall-out," and how it would affect Columbiana County. An interesting, educational skit was presented entitled "Let's Plan What to do Now." Those taking part were Mary Lou Alexander, Ann McCune, Meredith Livingston and Alice Stallsmith.

Another feature of the meeting were movies shown by John Kehrer of the purchasing department. They were entitled "Survival Under Atomic Attack," "Danger Is Your Companion" and "Checking for Injuries," and were donated by the Red Cross.

The entire program was arranged by Miss Stallsmith and Miss McCune, who represented the club at a six-week training course on home preparedness held recently at the Memorial Building. They will now try to instruct other interested employees, with the hope of holding another session.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Lisbon Man Is Named Bliss Co. Inspector

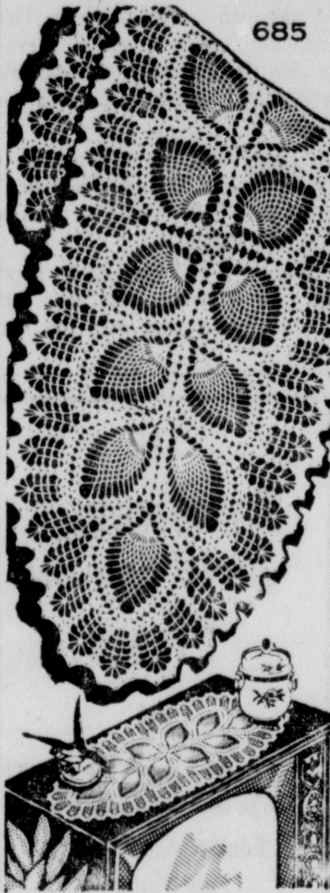

Tom Mercina, Jr. has been appointed chief inspector of the Salem Division of the E. W. Bliss Company, according to an announcement by G. E. Farrington, chief engineer.

Mercina has worked for Bliss since 1944, following his graduation from David Anderson High School in Lisbon. After a year and a half in the Army, he rejoined Bliss as an apprentice machinist in 1947. He became a journeyman in 1951 and an inspector in 1952.

Mercina his wife, Emily, and their four children, Karen, Frances, Nancy, and Paul, reside at 601 E. Chestnut St. in Lisbon.

Bill Skeels Gets 4-H Scholarship

William (Bill) Skeels, 18, of Lisbon RD 4, has been awarded an all-expense scholarship to an international farm seminar Aug. 20-23 at the University of Minnesota.

He was selected by the Ohio Council of Farm Cooperatives and the American Institute of Cooperation for the annual AIC Institute on the Minneapolis campus. Some 3,000 young people and adults from the United States and eight foreign countries will attend.

Bill has been in 4-H club work 11 years and is a member of the Just Rite Club for which his father is adviser. A brother Jim, a member of the same club, was a delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress last year for outstanding work in dairying.

Bill was also county 4-H King last year and a member of the Junior Fair Board. He graduated from United Local High School in 1960 and is associated with his brother, James, and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Skeels, in the operation of a dairy farm near Salem's North Cold Run Reservoir.

110 Attend Lisbon Service Club Outing

LISBON — One hundred and ten persons attended the 5th annual inter-service club picnic Wednesday evening at Willow Grove Park. The Junior Chamber of Commerce as host.

The Lisbon Ruritan had the largest attendance, percentage-wise, and were presented a plaque.

Bruce Kessler won a special prize. William Jones won the shooting contest and casting contest. George Berdine came in second in the 22-cal. rifle shoot and Bruce Black second in the casting.

Howard Adrian of Williamsport gave a casting demonstration. The buffet supper was served by the women of the Jaycees members. Richard Kuhns was the chairman of the affair, assisted by Jack Hill. William Stanley was in charge of the meal and Glenn Adams the entertainment.

Members present were from Kiwanis, Lions, Ruritan, Rotary and Jaycees.

ices Committee, in introducing the measure to let the President, until July 1, 1962, order 250,000 ready reservists to active duty for 12 months.

The measure also would permit the President to extend for not more than 12 months terms of service of military personnel which expire before that date.

In addition, the bill provides authority for extending active-duty training periods. McNamara said this would be used to increase "the readiness of selected reserve units and individual reservists by extending their training periods two to four weeks over and above their normal training."

If Kennedy had chosen to invoke emergency powers in effect since the Korean War, he could have called to active duty as many as 1 million ready reservists for two years. However, Congress would have had to supply the necessary funds.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, told the subcommittee he fully supported the program outlined by McNamara.

reduce distribution costs and thus make Deming pumps more competitive and provide for better employment.

The Deming Company, a locally-owned and operated factory until now, was incorporated in 1890 although the plants history dates back to 1854. Walter Deming became president of the firm following the death of his father, G. Ramsden Deming, in 1953.

The Crane Co., a leading manufacturer of valves, plumbing fixtures, furnaces and a broad range of steam and water conditioning appliances for residential, industrial and commercial applications, now has 29 plants in the U.S. and Canada. It also has subsidiaries in England.

Until now Crane has not been in the pump business.

committee of City Council earlier that he is strongly opposed to granting increased time off to firemen through vacations and holidays unless additional help is hired to make up for the loss in manpower.

Speaking for the firemen, Smith said he believed additional vacations and paid holidays could be worked out without any added cost to the city, although it would mean less manpower on occasions.

Chief Wright contends that if the additional time off is granted, at least one and possibly two more

Police, Firemen to Decide Own Actions

City police and firemen are expected to decide at a meeting this afternoon whether or not to accept City Council's proposed $24 per month pay increase or to file petitions to place an initiative ordinance on the November ballot calling for a larger pay boost.

A similar petition by firemen in the last general election was defeated.

men would have to be hired to maintain the department's efficiency.

Asked why the firemen didn't discuss their proposal with Chief Wright, Smith commented, "It takes two to have a discussion," implying that the fire chief would not listen to their proposal.

Both Chief Wright and Police Chief Martin Lutsch signed the petition submitted to Council by police and firemen requesting the pay hikes and other benefits.

Chief Lutsch told Council in a previous meeting that although his department is already undermanned, the increased vacation time the police were requesting could be worked out without hiring more men. "I think they deserve the added benefits," Lutsch had told Council.

Chief Wright told the News yesterday that he also believes his men deserve the increased benefits they are seeking, but he will not support the vacation and holiday requests unless Council makes provisions to cover the loss in manpower by hiring more firemen.

The chief insists the department can not absorb further loss in manpower without threatening the city's fire protection classification upon which fire insurance rates are based.

Cites Inspection Bureau Letter
To back him up, Chief Wright has a letter from the Ohio Inspection Bureau, dated Jan. 27, 1961, which reads, in part, as follows:

"As we have pointed out in previous correspondence, we feel that your department is undermanned if it is to provide reasonably efficient service to the citizens of Salem. Sufficient men should be added to the department so as to provide a minimum of six per shift, including vacation periods and during time when men are off sick."

"If there is a change in the fire department working hours, there must be an addition to the force sufficient to offset the reductions in the work week. You will recall also that the matter of manpower was the one item which precluded Salem from achieving a more favorable fire protection classification."

"We are hopeful that the needed additional manpower for your department can be provided by your city administration."

Currently there are six firemen on duty on Sundays, but only five the other six days of the week. Vacation and sick time frequently cut the number of men on duty even further, Wright explained.

He said firemen may accumulate up to 90 days of sick leave and that state law requires they be given 14 consecutive days of vacation annually.

State Regulations

Wright said the local department is charged with providing fire protection for an area with a population of 30,809. This includes 13,854 residents in the city and 16,954 in Perry Township with whom the city has a contract.

The state requires that at least three firemen answer all rural calls. This would include runs to Perry Township.

"Sure I would like to see my men get their increased benefits,"

Wright said, "but I can't overlook these regulations just to try to be a nice guy."

"There are a lot of things my men deserve," Wright remarked. Few departments are still working 72-hour weeks. Most are 56 or 63. Some get clothing allowances (Salem firemen don't) and many have six or more paid holidays."

The fire chief has been criticized for not attending Council meetings when the question of increased benefits were to be discussed.

When asked to comment on this, Wright remarked, "I answer to the Safety Director, not Council. I believe in going through the chain of command. Apparently my men don't."

"I made my position clear to the safety director as well as to Council's safety committee when I was asked to. Council has the facts; let them do with them what they want. Because I gave them the facts instead of what they wanted to hear, some of them didn't like it."

Others Are Heard

Firemen and policemen weren't the only city employees attending last night's meeting who voiced the opinion that the proposed pay increase isn't large enough. Several remarked also that they thought the raise should start now instead of Jan. 1, 1962, as proposed.

Leo Copacia, city street foreman, said he would appreciate anything Council can come up with in the way of pay increases for his men.

Aubrey Hayes, superintendent of utilities, didn't attend last night's meeting but he told Council Tuesday that the Utilities Commission will go along with "anything within reason" in the way of increased benefits for workers in the water and sewage departments.

A visitor, Mrs. Dorothy McKibbin, remarked that since Council has found, or plans to find, large sums of money for such things as an off-street parking lot and an overpass project, it owes "full consideration" to the city employees on their request for increased benefits.

Council's next meeting will be the regular session scheduled next Tuesday.

Correction

Peter H. Grossen of New Waterford-Columbiana Rd., who was found not guilty in County Court at East Palestine Monday on a charge of failure to yield the right of way, was cited originally after a State Highway Patrol car hit the rear of Grossen's vehicle on State Rt. 7 just north of the Rt. 46 junction.

Grossen had come out of Rt. 46 and was proceeding north on Rt. 7 when the cruiser, driven by Jonas Johnston, hit the rear of his car. A report of the court hearing in yesterday's paper indicated that Grossen hit the patrol car. It did not.

No report was made when the accident occurred June 7.

The Doctor Says

By DR. H. T. HYMAN

London's Emergency Medical Service

I cannot, of course, enter into the present political controversy that is being waged between the supporters of our "free enterprise" system of medical care and those who advocate what is called "socialized medicine."

However, I should like to direct your attention to a report of the International Business Machine World Trade Corp. on the system they have installed in London for round-the-clock emergency medical service.

Dr. H. T. Hyman

Here are the details:

Physicians under contract to the National Health Service of the United Kingdom are required to be on duty at all times of the day or night, seven days a week. Should one take a day off or a vacation, he is required to provide a substitute to care for his patients. And, as the Service is presently constituted, the subscribing doctor turns his territory over to qualified substitutes who cover in eight hour shifts.

Under the IBM system with an "accounting assist from punched cards," when the patient phones his off-duty or vacationing doctor, the call is automatically switched to service headquarters and, from headquarters, by radio, to duty doctors strategically located through the greater London area.

EACH STAND-IN doctor drives

a service car, equipped with a radio-telephone receiver. And, when the emergency call is relayed to the stand-in doctor, he is required to speed to the scene of the call.

The accounting chores created by this service are handled by a punch card system that performs its task in "only about five service bureau hours each month." And the stand-in doctor receives credit for his emergency calls at rates fixed by the National Health Service.

The IBM World Trade Corp. report concludes with the statement that "so successful has the emergency call service been in London that plans are being made to extend it to Birmingham and other English cities."

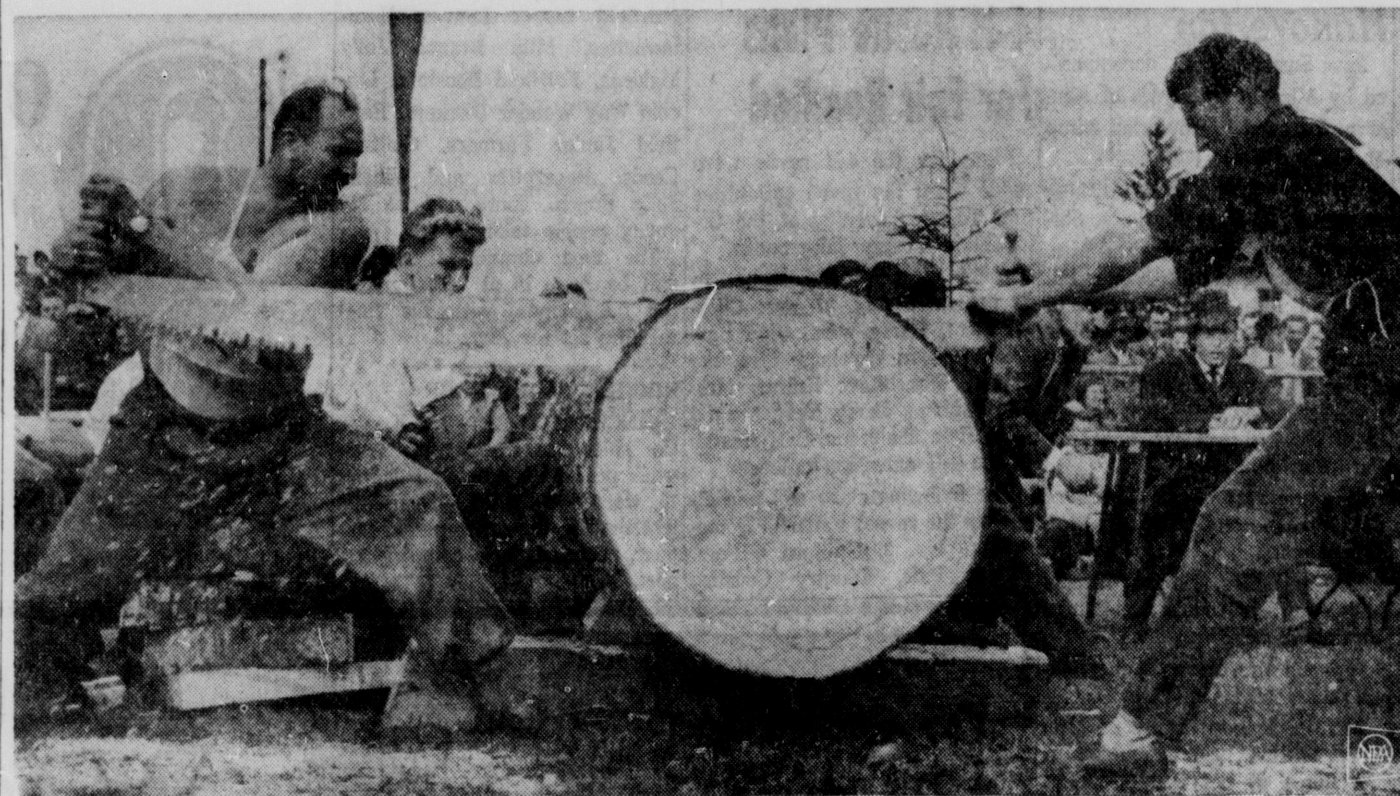

I know of nothing in the traditional American "free enterprise" system to prevent the establishment of a similar emergency medical service. Indeed, many small groups of physicians and medical societies provide for patient-care under similar conditions.

But I know of none so completely equipped and highly organized as the British system that enlists the services of some 1,500 qualified physicians.

Pine-Mint Shake Makes Refreshing Drink

It is the alert homemaker who realizes that warmer days also mean more strenuous activity by members of her family. Children playing outdoors, father mowing the lawn or dashing off to the golf course of a quick 9 holes—even the lady of the house feels more like working in the yard or playing a few holes of golf herself.

All of this emphasizes the importance of every member of the family receiving the nutrients necessary for healthy bodies.

Make sure your family is getting their full share of dairy foods by serving pine-mint shake at lunch or as an after school treat. It also is a perfect refreshing drink for friends who drop by.

1 can (8 3/4 oz.) crushed pineapple, undrained (about 1 cup),

1 cup chilled milk, 2 pints vanilla ice cream, 1/2 to 3/4 teaspoon mint extract (or to taste), green food coloring.

Combine pineapple and milk in container of electric blender. Cover. Blend at low speed until smooth, about 1 minute. Cut 1 pint of ice cream into thin slices; add to blender container.

Cover and blend until smooth, about 30 seconds. Add mint extract as desired and green food coloring as needed to tint an attractive green color.

Divide pineapple mint mixture into 4 tall or 6 average size glasses and top with remaining ice cream. Garnish with canned pineapple rings and mint leaves, if desired. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

New Waterford

Women's Association of the United Presbyterian Church will meet Thursday in the church social room. The hostesses are Mrs. Kathryn Spillman, Mrs. Coralie Grossen and Mrs. Georgette Sumrok. Mrs. Race Rupert is program chairman. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Vera Rickert of Boardman. Rev. Rickert was a former pastor of the New Waterford Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Esterly of New Waterford and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Young of Salem were recent guests of Mrs. Esther Simpson of Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Montgomery of New Waterford and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mahar of Leetonia were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Crawford of Warren.

Donald Macher of Pittsburgh,

Pa., is spending his summer vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Simmons, before beginning studies in September at Washington and Jefferson College.

Fifteen Teams Entered In County Softball Tournament

Action Begins Tonight; Salem Has Twelve Squads Competing

Lincoln Mach., Old Dutch Favored; EL, Wellsville Teams Vie for Title

Fifteen teams have entered the annual Columbiana County Softball Tournament scheduled to get underway at Kelley Park tonight, tourney director, Dave Briskin announced.

Only three teams outside of Salem will play in the tourney which is a double elimination event and will run until completed. Heading the list of 12 Salem teams is the Class A league-leader Lincoln Machine with a 19-4 record. Because of its record the Lincoln nine must be rated the favorite in the tourney.

OLD DUTCH, kingpin of Class AA with an 11-4 mark, is rated right behind Lincoln Machine as the choice to cop the tournament. Other Salem teams include Theron's IGA, Italian Club, Tullis American (made up of players of the Class A Mile Branch team), Spartans and Scott's Candies (made up of players of the Class A Old Dutch team).

Industrial Mining, Herron Transfer, Stepanic's Tavern, Shaffer Ford and Earl's Ashland Service (made up of players of the Class AA Bliss team) are the other Salem clubs in the tourney.

The three out-of-town teams include A.V.P. of East Liverpool, featuring basketball star, Clarence 'Bevo' Francis at third base; East Liverpool East End

SCENE OF PGA PLAY — Here is a diagram of the North Course of Olympia Fields, Ill., country club course, scene of the Professional Golfers' Association of America championship starting today through Sunday. Olympia Fields is about 35 miles south of Chicago. Arnold Palmer is the favorite in 72-hole match play.

Firemen Romp 18-8; Home Furn. Wins

The Firemen crushed Bricker & Bricker, 18-8 in Class G action and Home Furniture rolled to an easy 10-3 victory over the Dairy Isle in Class H play in Hot Stove League encounters Wednesday.

Bob Bentley captured the win for the Firemen and was aided by Tom Bica's two triples. The league-leaders are now 9-2 in loop competition.

Mike Love collected two of the six Bricker hits.

Ken Stein rapped a homerun and a double to show the way for Home Furniture who are now 6-1 on the season.

Dairy Isle threw a scare into the winners as it tied the game in the third inning at 3-3 but seven runs in the final two innings gave the win to Home Furniture.

Floyd Crawford banged out two singles to lead Dairy Isle.

Hitting-Frank Robinson, Reds — hit a two-run homer in eighth inning for 3-2 victory over Milwaukee that kept Cincinnati in league lead.

Pitching-Frank Lary, Tigers — won his 14th by beating Los Angeles 5-4 to keep Tigers half game back of leading Yankees.

Stamping Sweeps Pair In Slo-Pitch

Salem Stamping swept a double-header and Lincoln Machine chalked up one decision in Slo-Pitch League action last night at Kelley Park.

Stamping moved to within one game of league-leading B & W Research by racking up victories over Lincoln Machine, 4-3; and Post Office, 9-7. Lincoln Machine's victory came by a 14-4 score over Eljer.

B & W now leads the loop with a 4-0 record while second-place Stampings has a 3-1 mark.

Stamping's victory over Post Office marked the fifth straight time the winless Mailmen have been on the short end of the final score this year. The game was highlighted by the benching of Dave Briskin, slugging star of the slumping Post Office aggregation.

The hottest hitter last night was Ritchey of Lincoln Machine who rapped out four singles in five trips to the plate against Eljer.

Yanks, Tigers Flash Home Run Power

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
New York and Detroit kept pace in the American League race Wednesday with the Yankees leading their half game lead. New York hit four homers while blasting Chicago 5-2 and Detroit used homers by Rocky Colavito and Al Kaline to ease Frank Lary's way to a 5-4 victory over Los Angeles.

ers Friday and Saturday in Boston, this gave Blanchard four homers on four consecutive appearances at bat. It was the 12th time it had been done. Ralph Kiner did it twice.

Mickey Mantle hit No. 39, only one behind Roger Maris' total of 40 in their exciting race to break Babe Ruth's record of 60, set in 1927.

Rocky Colavito slamming No. 29 Washington for a 10-9 decision. Ray Moore, fifth Twins' pitcher, finally saved Dagoberto Cueto's first major league victory. Dave Sisler lost in relief.
Roland Sheldon pitched a four-hitter for the Yanks, easing along behind all those homers off loser Ray Herbert.
Left-handed Don Moeller was roughed up for four of the five Detroit runs, suffering a sixth defeat.

Richards Changes AL All-Star Roster

BOSTON (AP) — Manager Paul Richards of Baltimore, obviously looking for pitching help, changed four of his hurlers on the American League team for the second 1961 All-Star game in Boston next Monday.

Richards, permitted to add three players to the 25-man team that played the first game, selected first basemen Roy Sievers of Chicago and Bill Skowron of New York and outfielder Tito Francona of Cleveland.

The lineup for the July 31 game was announced by American League President Joe Cronin today.

The eight players elected by vote of league managers, coaches and players in June who started in the San Francisco game, also must start the second game.

American League pitchers were thumped for 11 hits in the National League's 5-4, 10-inning victory in San Francisco July 11, the 10th victory in the last 14 games for the National.

Midget Loop Slugger Faces 'Expulsion'

Richards, permitted to change any or all of his pitchers for the second game, shifted to relief specialist Luis Arroyo of the New York Yankees, Barry Latman of Cleveland, durable Camilo Pascual of Minnesota and rookie right-hander Don Schwall of the Boston Red Sox.

WAYLAND, Mich. (AP) — Gail Hoffman, a freckled eighth grader, leads the Wayland, Mich., Midget League with a whopping .600 batting average.

They replace Mike Fornieles of Boston, Frank Lary of Detroit, Jim Perry of Cleveland and Billy Pierce of Chicago.

And this 90-pounder, captain of the team, is a sure-handed second baseman who has made only four errors in 10 games.

Holdover pitchers from the first game are Jim Bunning of Detroit, Dick Donovan of Washington, Whitey Ford of the Yankees, Ken McBride of Los Angeles and Hoyt Wilhelm of Baltimore.

Some of the other youngsters are jealous of Gail's success and many of the opposing teams are clamoring to have the leagues top hitter thrown out of the league.

Dodgers, Pirates Also Win

Robinson's Homer Rescues Redlegs

By The Associated Press
Cincinnati came within an eye-lash of slipping out of first place in the National League Wednesday night, but once again Frank Robinson came to the rescue.

Robinson's two-run homer in the eighth, following a pinch homer by Gus Bell provided a 3-2 victory over Milwaukee and staved off the onrushing Los Angeles Dodgers for at least one more day.

Norm Larker's grand slam home run converted Don Drysdale's five-hitter into a 6-1 victory over Philadelphia as the Dodgers won their eighth in the last nine starts. Drysdale was locked in a duel with Frank Sullivan, replacement for the injured Jim Owens, when Larker clouted his first grand slammer.

Pittsburgh snapped a five-game losing streak by downing San Francisco 8-3. Bob Friend, who gave up 12 hits, broke a tie with a two-out bases-loaded single in the sixth inning.

Bobby Will's pinch single off Lindy McDaniel with the bases full and two out in the 12th gave the Chicago Cubs a 7-6 decision over St. Louis.

Milwaukee rookie Don Nottebart, was shutting out the Reds 2-0 when Gus Bell went up to hit for Ken Johnson, Cincinnati's new pitcher from Toronto, in the eighth. Bell's homer into the right field bleachers took care of the shutout. The victory went to Johnson.

Friend got better as the game went along in Pittsburgh. Dick Lemay, victim of Friend's tie-breaking single, was the loser.

The winning spurt of the Cubs against the Cardinals started as Ron Santo singled with one out. He moved to second on an infield out and took third on a wild pitch. McDaniel then walked Ernie Banks and Ed Bouchee intentionally before Will came off the bench to win it for relief man Barney Schultz.

Cincinnati 000 000 030—3 7 1
Milwaukee 010 001 000—2 7 1
Johnson, Brosnan (8) and Edwards; Nottebart and White, W—Johnson (1-0). L—Nottebart (3-5).
Home runs—Cincinnati, Bell (3).

Kensington and Winona Win Tilts In United League

Unbeaten Winona blasted East Rochester 16-2 and Kensington downed Hanoverton 11-8 in United Little League activity Tuesday.

Marty Briceland tossed a four-hitter for Winona who chalked up its 15th consecutive victory. Bryan Dorr was the winning hurler for Kensington which improved its record to 5-10.

Dennis Warne drove in four runs for Kensington with two base hits. Hitting star for Winona was Larry Lance who rapped a two-run homer and a triple.

The scheduled contest between New Alexander and Franklin was postponed.

Scores of last Friday's United Little League games were: East Rochester 6, Hanoverton 3; Franklin 5, Kensington 4; and Winona 32, New Alexander 0.

Winona will play the Alliance Dukes in the district Hot Stove League Tournament at Salem's Memorial Park Saturday at 2 p.m.

Habeger Is Named Grid Coach At F-W

Dave Habeger has been elevated to the head football coaching job at Fairfield-Waterford High School, it was announced recently. Habeger replaces Bruce Weber who took over the head basketball post.

Habeger was reserve basketball coach last year and moved up to the head grid position when Bing Newton resigned as head cage mentor to come to Salem and Weber got Newton's job.

Weber's Rebel gridders finished in a second place tie with McDonald i eeh natln oerteuu- gC wLyn ald in the Inter-County League last season, chalking up a 3-2 mark along with a 6-3 overall record.

Salem Merchants Trounce Leetonia

The Salem Merchants rapped out 20 hits in trouncing Leetonia 18-4 in a County-City League baseball game Wednesday night at Centennial Park.

Al Stumpo, who started on the mound for Leetonia, was rocked for seven runs in the first inning and eight more in the second before being relieved by Stratton.

Chuck Wilson, Bob Morlan and Dick Loudon clubbed three hits apiece for Salem. Tony Everett and Dick Beall each lashed out triples. The only home run in the fray was belted by Mike Mercure of Leetonia.

The visitors, who have only one game in 17 starts this season, were able to get only three hits off the offerings of Salem pitcher Lynn Barnett.

Mercur was pressed into mound duty late in the game after reliefer Stratton was struck in the head by a bat which slipped out of the hands of one of his teammates. The injury is not believed to be serious. The victory for Salem was its 11 in league play as against eight losses.

Businessmen Defend Claim Of 'Happy Family' Relations

NEW YORK (AP)—Are advertising men lecherous, treacherous, bawdy villains—ingrates who sip martinis with shapely blondes while the supper grows cold on the family stove over in suburbia?

Cuban Lard Shortage Causes Rationing

HAVANA (AP)—The key word in Cuba today is "mantea." Translated from the Spanish it means lard, or fats.

Mantea—or lack of it—has presented Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime with a sticky problem. For the first time in its 2½-year history, the regime has had to impose rationing.

Families are restricted to one pound of lard and one pound of cooking oil monthly for each person above the age of one year. This is going to hurt. Cubans normally consume an extraordinarily large amount of fat.

The government places the blame on "American economic aggression for the present embarrassing situation, claiming the United States is maintaining an unannounced embargo against exports of lard to Cuba. The United States has traditionally been the sole supplier of Cuba, selling this country 98,000 tons a year.

Shipments of lard from the United States have ceased or practically ceased. Some, however, suspect that Cubas dollar shortage may have as much to do with this as any real or imagined embargo.
